

Day 1
Alpha and Omega

*“I am the Alpha and the Omega,
the Beginning and the End.”*

REVELATION 21:6

FROM THE FATHER’S HEART

My child, you are often confused about who I am and where you are going. When you arise in the morning, I am there with you. When you work through the day, you will find Me close by. From the time you open your eyes until I close them in sleep at night, I am always with you, ready to guide you. Do not worry about knowing how you fit into My plans. Be concerned only with knowing Me and spending time together. Your future is in My hands.

A GRATEFUL RESPONSE

In Your time, Lord, every step is ordered and every thought recorded. You know the past, present, and future. You have planned every day of my life with purpose and love.

Gently but firmly You are preparing a glorious ending for me in heaven. I give my life into Your safekeeping. How marvelous is Your wisdom!

SIMPLE TRUTH

Life is a journey that begins and ends with God.
